DESCRIPTION:

Kokeshi dolls are simple, cylindrical dolls with no arms or legs. Farmers would traditionally carve these dolls for their children who would then paint in the faces. The results were touchingly individual renditions. At Usaburo Kokeshi Factory, you will see the dolls carved from fine wood grains and painted by expert craftsmen. You can experience painting Kokeshi doll. There are also over one hundred types of Kokeshi dolls that you can purchase at a discount in the store (<http://www.usaburo.com/index3.htm>).

At Tsukiyono Vidro Park, you could experience of sandblast for glass cup. A smoked glass effect is created on the surface of the glass by blasting it with fine grain sand at high pressure. Using cut-sheets of plants, animals, and letters, etc... to cover the glass surface, you can have fun creating a contrast between the clear glass and smoked glass (<http://www.vidro-park.jp/experience/sandblast.html>).
