Oigami town, located in Gunma Pref. and famous for its hot springs, is a really nice place to enjoy a relaxing trip from Yokosuka. Fukiware waterfall situated in Oigami, it is a designated Natural Treasure in Japan. A walk down about 160 steps from the parking lot, a great view of a U-shape waterfall - about 100 feet long and a 25 feet drop – will be appeared. It has been called Niagara of the East and considered as one of the most beautiful waterfalls in Japan. You can walk nearby the waterfall without fence (http://www.mustlovejapan.com/subject/fukiware\_waterfall/). Kokeshi dolls are simple, cylindrical dolls with no arms or legs. Farmers would traditionally carve these dolls for their children who would then paint in the faces. The results were touchingly individual renditions. At Usaburo Kokeshi Factory, you will see the dolls carved from fine wood grains and painted by expert craftsmen. You can experience painting Kokeshi doll. There are also over one hundred types of Kokeshi dolls that you can purchase at a discount in the store (<http://www.usaburo.com/index3.htm>).
