DESCRIPTION:

Kokeshi dolls are simple, cylindrical dolls with no arms or legs. Farmers would traditionally carve these dolls for their children who would then paint in the faces. The results were touchingly individual renditions. At Usaburo Kokeshi Factory, you will see the dolls carved from fine wood grains and painted by expert craftsmen. You can experience painting Kokeshi doll. There are also over one hundred types of Kokeshi dolls that you can purchase at a discount in the store (<http://www.usaburo.com/index3.htm>).

At Tsukiyono Vidro Park, you could experience of sandblast for glass cup. Pick design you like and Drop molten glass (ingredient of glass), and stretch/arrange shape of it quickly with your idea for original glass plate! You also can shop and see the process of glass material's making at the factory (<http://www.vidro-park.jp/experience/sandblast.html>).
