DESCRIPTION:

Tokyo is the capital and largest city in Japan. With over 35.7 million people in the Greater Tokyo Area it is recognized as the most populous, and one of the most expensive metropolises in the world. Tokyo blends a mixture of industry, culture and charm making it a lively place to visit. Our first stop is a cultural one, Meiji Shrine. Originally built in 1920 to commemorate Emperor Meiji and Empress Shoken; it was rebuilt in 1958 after being destroyed by fire during World War II. The famous shrine sits in the center of its dense forest enriched with wild flora, berries and many endangered plants and animals (www.meijijingu.or.jp/english/). Our next stop, The Tokyo Tower, exceeds the height of the Eiffel Tower by about 33 meters and offers a fantastic, panoramic view of Tokyo and the surrounding area from the main observatory. Also catch a glimpse of a new tower, Tokyo Sky Tree, which opened in May 2012 (www.tokyotower.co.jp/english/). The last stop of this tour will be at Asakusa Nakamise Shopping Street. The streets leading to Asakusa temple's main gate, with its two huge iconic lanterns, are lined with 89 souvenir shops selling anything from chopsticks to kimonos! While there we'll visit the Asakusa Kannon Temple also is known as Senso-ji Temple. You can enter the hall and enjoy the elaborate décor of this 17th century temple dedicated to the Goddess of Mercy (www.senso-ji.jp/about/index_e.html).
